

NON-CASH CONTRIBUTIONS

IRS Requirements for Non-Cash Contributions (Donation of Goods)

Donations of less than $250

A taxpayer claiming a non-cash contribution of less than $250 must obtain and keep a receipt from the charitable organization showing:

1. The name of the charitable organization,
2. The date and location of the charitable organization,
3. A reasonable detailed description of the property.

Donations of $250 to $500

If a taxpayer claims a deduction of at least $250 but not more than $500 for a non-cash charitable contribution, he or she must obtain and keep a receipt from the charitable organization showing:

1. The name of the charitable organization,
2. The date and location of the charitable organization,
3. A reasonably detailed description (but not necessarily the value) of any property contributed,
4. Whether or not the qualified organization gave the taxpayer any goods or services as a result of the contribution (other than certain token items and membership benefits), and,
5. If goods and services were provided to the taxpayer the acknowledgement must include a description and a good faith estimate of the value of those goods or services.

Donations of $500 to $5000

If a taxpayer claims a deduction over $500 but not over $5,000 for a non-cash charitable contribution, they must have the same acknowledgment and written records as for contributions of at least $250-$500 described above, and in addition, the records must also include:

1. How the property was obtained. For example, by purchase, gift, bequest, inheritance or exchange.
2. The approximate date the property was obtained, created, produced, or manufactured.
3. The cost or other basis, and any adjustments to the basis, of property held less than 12 months, and if available, the cost or other basis of property held 12 months or more. If the taxpayer is not able to provide information on either the date the property was obtained, or the cost basis of the property, and there is reasonable cause for not being able to provide this information, attach a statement of explanation to the return.

Donations of items over $5000

Deductions over $5000 may require filing IRS Form 8283 to be signed by the donation recipient. Additional documentation may be required, including qualified appraisals. Consult your tax professional for the requirements for potential deductions at this level.

CHARITABLE CONTRIBUTIONS ARE EASILY AUDITED, SINCE WRITTEN VERIFICATION OR A BANK RECORD IS NOW REQUIRED FOR MOST CONTRIBUTIONS.
